

Mark your calendars and register for three, 1.5 hour webinars this spring/summer hosted by NRRRA Staff.

Learn how to keep your employees and community safe from toxic chemicals, promote safer personal care products, and how to safely dispose of hazardous household materials.

NHDES Certification Credits will be available!

Healthy Home, Clean Waters

Friday, June 8 at 2 pm

Participants investigate household toxins, cleaning chemicals and personal care products. They learn how to identify toxic products, why it matters to human health and the environment, how to safely dispose of toxics and how to make or find safer alternatives in the market place.

Registration Link : <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/728427943431551234>

Indoor Air Quality and Green Cleaning

Wednesday, June 27 at 2 pm

School building occupants are at risk of exposure to many indoor air quality hazards such as cleaning chemicals, varnishes, maintenance issues, improper storage of art/science/voc tech chemicals. This workshop explores such risks and how green cleaning practices can significantly improve school health.

Registration Link:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/4083996693915714050>

Things That Go Boom!

Tuesday, July 10 at 1 pm

This workshop analyzes hazardous substances dropped off at transfer stations, how to distinguish/separate types of hazardous waste and how to properly store and dispose of safely according to state and federal laws.

Registration Link : <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/4595849043459461890>